Hill's journey began on a cold January morning in 2016, when she received the news that her husband, Reece, had taken his own life. She was devastated and shattered, but she was also determined to find a way to make sense of her loss and honor her husband's memory.

In the years that followed, Hill poured her heart and soul into writing Reece In Pieces. The book is a deeply personal and intimate account of her grief, but it is also a story of hope and healing. Hill writes about the dark days of her despair, but she also writes about the small moments of joy and beauty that she found along the way.

Reece In Pieces is a powerful and moving memoir that offers a glimpse into the depths of human grief and the power of resilience. Hill's story is a testament to the strength of the human spirit and the power of love to heal even the deepest wounds.
